Alto Adige

Elena Walch

A successful architect, Elena Walch married into one of the oldest winemaking families in the Alto Adige in the 1980s and her first vintage under her own name was in 1988, when she became the mountain region's first female winemaker. She went on to win acclaim around the world, with daughters Julia and Karoline now working alongside her. The pioneering winemaker owns some of the best vineyards in Italy, including two monopoles: Castel Ringberg in Caldaro and Kastelaz in Tramin, both at 300-400m altitude. These are officially recognised with the prestigious geographical domination "Vigna".

Musella

Musella is set within the beautiful, green hills of San Martino Buon Albergo, near Verona. Its vineyards cover three different hillside locations on south and west-facing slopes, which offer a remarkable differentiation of soil types: the Monte del Drago, Perlar and Palazzina hills. Maddalena Pasqua is the incredibly talented winemaker at the helm of the winery. Her love for nature and deep respect for the soil led her to become one of the most fervent ambassadors of biodynamics in Italy. The result is wines with incredible elegance and focus, brimming with life and tension.

His single-vineyards Barolo and Barbaresco set new standards for the whole regions, allowing a unique blend of traditional and cutting-edge methods. His research of perfection was passed on to his daughter Bruna, who has been at the helm of the estate since 2006, blessing us with some of the most electrifying wines in our portfolio. Daide Fregonese

A childhood dream finally becoming a reality; that's what Davide Fregonese realised when he set up Bugia Nen. With the help of Davide Rosso, he found a few hectares in one of Barolo's most prized terroir, Serralunga d'Alba and decided to embark on this new adventure. The particularity of Prapò and Cerretta make for tense, long-lived, pure expressions of Nebbiolo which are an incredible delight to unravel in the glass. Still in his early vintages, one can already see the realised potential of this superstar in the making.

Giacomo Fenocchio

When Claudio Fenocchio succeeded his father Giacomo at the helm of the family business in 1989, the debate between modernist and traditionalists in Barolo was at its most acute. He decided to opt for a third approach, something many refer to as radical traditionalism. His wines are celebrated for being impressively approachable in youth while getting even better with age. Claudio represents the 5th generation of the Fenocchio family crafting elegant, true Barolos that capture the soul of his vineyards. Far from resting on his laurels though, he continues to push boundaries of quality and innovation while respecting his family legacy.

Luca Roagna

The Roagna story started in the late 1800s when Luca Roagna's great grandfathers were part of a small group of pioneers that started making Barbaresco as we know it today. Luca, currently representing the 5th generation of winemakers, is taking the estate from strength to strength. He works with the utmost respect for his land: old vines, massale selection, and promotion of biodiversity are all at the core of his approach in the vineyards. In the winery, long aging, wild yeast, and long macerations assure that the essence of his terroir is expressed in the bottle.

Punset

While the vineyards that form Punset have been farmed by the Marcarino family for generations, it is truly thanks to Marina and her incredible energy that the estate is how it is nowadays. In the 1980s, she decided to pursue organic farming; a demanding choice that was rewarded by becoming the first estate to receive the organic certification in Italy. Her passion for the soil and the environment led her to embrace biodynamics and the agronomic philosophy of Masanobu Fukuoka. From one of the healthiest vineyards in Italy, Marina crafts wines that brim with life, energy, and pure terroir.

His family's dedication to quality is helping to create incredibly vibrant and intense wines from local grape varieties which are a true distillate of their soils, Mediterranean climate and their respectful viticulture. Fattoria Le Pupille

Elisabetta Geppetti, the powerhouse behind Fattoria Le Pupille, is a woman of exceptional energy and vision. She was only 20 years old when she first took the reins at her family's property in Southern Tuscany in the 1980s. The winery is synonymous with Morellino di Scansano and Elisabetta has been instrumental in placing this appellation on the map of wine lovers, producing excellent value Sangiovese and gaining global fame with the area's first Super-Tuscan, Saffredi. Her children Clara and Ettore are now instrumental in the winery, and together are working to look towards the future. This second generation has created two incredible, innovative wines: Le Pupille, an amphora-aged Syrah, and Piemme, a phenomenal and unique Petit Manseng.

Situated immediately below the walls of Montalcino town, at the top of the hill facing out into the valley, the old vines and altitude of Il Marroneto's vineyards produce wine that is ethereal, complex, delightful, and thought-provoking all at once. Sesti

Sesti is one of the most delightfully individual producers in Armit's portfolio. These wines are produced by Giuseppe Maria Sesti and his daughter Elisa from just 13 hectares of vines surrounding the Castello di Argiano, which features on their labels. Located in a unique micro-climate in the southern part of Montalcino, surrounded by forests and on soils of layered oceanic sediment, Sesti produces elegant Sangiovese with a distinct floral note. Self-described as 'eclectic by nature', Giuseppe ran a Baroque Opera festival for thirty years while restoring the castle and developing the vineyards. He has devoted himself to the study of astronomy, a subject on which he has published no fewer than five books, and considers the influence of the moon indispensable to viticulture.

Tenuta San Guido

Quietly, elegantly and almost involuntarily, the Incisa della Rocchetta family set to release the wine that would revolutionise the Italian wine scene creating a totally new genre: the Super-Tuscan. Tenuta San Guido is now a legendary estate and was first planted in the 1940s by the Marchese Mario Incisa della Rocchetta, who noted the similarity between Bolgheri's terroir and that of the Graves. When, in 1968, Sassicaia was finally commercially released, it took the fine wine world by storm. Cementing its iconic status, in 1994 it was granted its own appellation – Bolgheri Sassicaia DOC.

Tiberio

Tiberio is one of the brightest rising stars of Italian wine. Winemaker Cristiana Tiberio has made it her mission to craft wines that a very distinct varietal and regional character with minimal intervention. A hyper-local approach and uncompromising eye for detail has led Cristiana to divide the vineyards into individual biotypes – vines from the same variety and the same clone, genetically identical, but that have adapted to tiny differences in their precise location on an epigenetic level. The result is some of the purest and long-lived wines in the region. Tiberio is an iconic producer, waiting to be discovered.

Campania

Viticoltori De Conciliis

Viticoltori de Conciliis is an artisanal family-owned winery based in Campania, representing the best of contemporary winemaking in southern Italy, with mineral, complex Fiano and rich, layered Aglianico. The winery was formed in 1996, when siblings Luigi, Bruno, and Paola convinced their father Alessandro to stop selling their grapes and make their own wine. Their 15 hectares of vineyards are set in rugged coastal foothills with soils rich in marine minerals and fossils, the altitude and sea breezes balancing out the Mediterranean heat. The family are pioneers of sustainable viticulture in Campania: they farm organically, have been energy self-sufficient with solar panels since 2007, and have always have paid all employees a living wage and guaranteed year-round employment – quite groundbreaking in such an impoverished region.

Cantele

Having fallen in love with Puglia, Giovanni Battista Cantele and his wife Teresa Manara decided to move to Salento to establish a winery in the late 1950s. The whole family is now involved in the business and carries on the legacy with the same passion and energy. While the primary focus is on local varieties like Primitivo, Negroamaro and Bombino, the winery also produces pure expressions of international varieties. The aim is to redefine Puglia's wines and promote the unique terroirs of Salento with wine of great intensity, precision and freshness.

Agricola Punica

Agricola Punica is based in the dramatic hills of southern Sardinia. The project was created as a collaboration between the Sardinian Santadi family; Dr Giacomo Tachis, the oenologist considered the architect of the Super-Tuscan movement; and Marquis Incisa Della Rocchetta, winemaker of Sassicaia. In the words of Antonio Galloni: "how's that for an all-star team?" The purple capsule and round logo of Barrua is a subtle nod to these illustrious origins, while the name Agricola Punica references the ancient Punic civilisation – whose ruins are found among across Sardinia.

Pietradolce

Since its founding in 2005 Pietradolce has come to own one of the largest collections of pre-phyloxera vines on Mt Etna, up to 120 years old. This active volcano commands the winery's devotion and respect, the complex volcanic soils producing truly phenomenal wines with real energy and nuance. Owner Michele Faro and winemaker Giuseppe Parlavacchio focus exclusively on local varieties Nerello Mascalese and Carricante, producing a range of pure, terroir-driven wines roughly structured as Village, Premier Cru, and Grand Cru. While they do offer an elegance and depth reminiscent of great Burgundy, they offer incredible value in comparison.

Champagne

Beaumont des Crayères

In 1955, a group of wine growers from the village of Mardeuil joined forces to set up a champagne house, which was named Beaumont des Crayères after one of the finest hillsides in the village. Three quarters of their 86 hectare estate is located on the hillsides of Épernay with soils rich in chalk. Mardeuil is widely recognised as one of the best regions for cultivating Pinot Meunier with a share of 60% of their vineyards given over to this variety. The remaining 40% is divided with 25% Chardonnay and 15% Pinot Noir plantings.

From his joyous Expression NV to a one of a kind Rosé de Saignée to the still Pinot Noir, if you like Blanc de Noirs sparkling wines, Champagne Geoffroy is not to be missed.

Champagne Gimonnet

Overseeing 28 ha of vineyards exclusively planted with Chardonnay, Didier and Olivier Gimonnet are carrying on the family tradition of crafting superb Blanc de Blancs. The House has mastered the Chardonnay grape like no other producer by creating a non-vintage Brut of remarkable purity and a range of distinctive vintage Blanc de Blancs that explore the variety of the grape and the exceptional terroir. Even their Rosé continues to be an ode to Chardonnay, accounting for almost 90% of the blend. Their ethereal, elegant and extremely long-lived Champagnes are simply a must-have for any Champagne lover.

Agnès and Didier Dauvissat

The most recent of the Dauvissat domaines in Chablis, Domaine Agnès and Didier Dauvissat released its first vintage in 1989. It now stretches over 10 ha, with parcels in Petit Chablis, Chablis village and the premier cru Beauroy. Florent, their son, is now at the helm of the property, crafting vibrant, zesty and distinctly mineral Chablis. Despite being a relatively new producer, Domaine Agnès and Didier Dauvissat is already making a name for itself with their pure expressions of Chardonnay.

Pierre Bart represents the sixth generation at the estate and, with his precise winemaking technique and profound understanding of terroir, is crafting some of the most interesting and pure expressions of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay from Burgundy. The understated elegance of his wines is a hallmark of the Domaine, where purity of fruit and intense minerality are given absolute priority and focus.

Domaine Alain Burguet

Based in Gevrey Chambertin and founded in 1976 by Alain, the estate is now run by brothers Jean Luc and Eric. With 9.5ha of vineyard, the brothers have a strong focus on sustainable viticulture with biodynamic practices. The wines are 100% destemmed with a limited amount of new oak, unfined, unfiltered with minimum intervention in term of pidgeage and racking. The brothers strive to continue their father's legacy of wines that are clean and natural with very little sulphur dioxide, expressive of their terroirs, and most of all elegant.

Domaine Michel Mallard

Michel Mallard and his sons' vineyard is located in the commune of Ladoix-Serrigny, a small village at the junction between the Côte de Beaune and Côte de Nuits. Vine growers from father to son for five generations, the vineyard has expanded over time and now cultivates 11 hectares. The estate has 11 ha around the Corton hill, producing 16 appellations in total. It is located in the center of Ladoix-Serrigny on the RN974 – the main road through Burgundy – just south of where Côte de Nuits meet Côte de Beaune. Michel Mallard took over from his father in 2005 and is now running the family estate with his parents' help while also making the wines at Domaine d'Eugenie.

In 2003, the sister-and-brother team of Alix and Étienne de Montille created the micro-négociant Maison de Montille. Domaine de Montille

One of the great estates in Burgundy, Domaine de Montille produces incredibly elegant and understated wines. Established by Hubert de Montille, who inherited a few Volnay vines in 1951, the estate now comprises 17 ha. The wines had a reputation for requiring a long time to reach maturity but under Étienne de Montille, with the help of Chef de Cave Brian Sieve, the aromatic complexity of the wines has been brought to the fore.

Jean Baptiste Jessiaume

Based in Santenay, the estate purchase from 9 ha of vines. Jean Baptiste comes from a long family line intimately involved in wine stretching back over 200 years. Initially, the Jessiaumes were merchants and accountants in the 18th century and offered a selection of fine wines from the neighboring communes in the southern Côte de Beaune. In 1830, the family acquired vineyards and became vigneron outright with substantial parcels located around Santenay. This continued until 2007 when the Jean Baptiste's father and uncle relinquished the vines. If Jean Baptiste had already been steeped in viticulture and wine making (collecting the Young Burgundian Winemaker of the Year in 2012 at the age of 23), his teenage years were spent in other verdant fields: football pitches. Common sense prevailed and he returned to his roots in Santenay. After a stint as head winemaker for a large Côte Chalonnaise Domaine, he finally set up his own business in 2019 and the selection closely echoes the offerings of his forebears 200 years ago. These are beautifully terroir-expressive wines and not to be missed.

Maison Roche de Bellène

Nicolas Potel took his first steps as a winemaker at Domaine de la Pousse d'Or where he worked with his father in the cellar. Following his father he founded Domaine de Bellène with vineyards in Santenay, Saint-Romain, Volnay, Nuits-Saint-Georges and Vosne-Romanée. Some years later he established a négociant business called Maison Roche de Bellène sourcing grapes from trusted growers in some of the most prestigious vineyards in Burgundy. Nicolas is one of the most dynamic winemakers in the region with an energy and passion matched by few others. He adopts a natural approach to viticulture, in tune with the conditions each year, and buys grapes from organic growers. With his many contacts up and down the Côte d'Or, he used to produce a staggering selection of wines. These days he focuses on a smaller number which has enabled him to monitor each cuvée more closely.

Domaine Thomas Collardot

Bubbly, endearing Jacqueline Collardot couldn't resist the call of tradition when her father retired from the family Domaine. First, however, she had to obtain her diploma at the "viti" in Beaune before taking over the 2.5 hectares in 2011. There are worse places to own vines than Puligny-Montrachet and the estate boasts a mouthwatering range of village wines and two premiers crus. The emphasis will remain on showcasing terroir through offerings of single vineyard wines. The first vintage Jacqueline made from A to Z was 2015 and the vines were tended on a sustainable model although the aim is to convert to organic farming as soon as possible. All the vineyard work is either done by hand or horse depending on the parcel. Fermentation occurs with natural wild yeasts. The wines are pressed gently and slowly, settling then fermentation and élevage in barrel for 10 months. Barrels are then blended in stainless steel tank for three months before bottling occurs. The premier crus are to be found in Hameau de Blagny and a prime chunk of racy Folatières. In 2018, her son Mathieu decided to pack in his job as a website developer and join forces.

Mâconnais and Côte Chalonnaise

Domaine Laurent Cognard

The Cognard family has its origins in the Mâconnais but Laurent is a local boy who always cherished the idea of settling here and founding his own Domaine. He took a roundabout way to accumulating the requisite funds to set up. In 1997, he acquired his first vineyards and became a full time vigneron in 2006 at the head of 5,5 hectares. Today, he manages 18 hectares of vines spread over Loché, Montagny and Mercurey with 6,4 hectares in Montagny 1er Cru.
